

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Driving under the influence of alcohol or other drugs is a terribly destructive act, affecting both the irresponsible driver and innocent victims who may be injured or killed in motor vehicle accidents; and,

WHEREAS, Alcohol-related accidents are the leading cause of death among young people between 16 and 24 years of age; and,

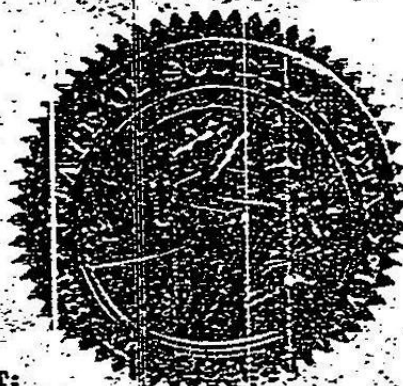

WHEREAS, Students Against Drunk Driving (S.A.D.D.) was established in 1981 to improve young people's knowledge and attitudes about alcohol and drugs and to prevent the tragic waste of life caused by driving under the influence; and,

WHEREAS, During the months of May and June when school sessions come to a close and young people have more freedom to drive on our streets and highways, S.A.D.D. is sponsoring special programs to make students more aware of the serious results of drunk driving:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the months of May and June, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty First Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

George S. Mickelson
